Details:

Introduction: The Employability's Mentorship Training Program was organized by the Training & Placement Department of our institution with the objective of enhancing the employability skills of our pharmacy students. The program aimed to provide mentorship, guidance, and practical insights to prepare them for their future careers in the pharmaceutical industry.

Objectives:

- ✓ To equip students with essential employability skills.
- ✓ To provide mentorship and guidance from industry experts.
- ✓ To enhance students' understanding of career opportunities in the pharmaceutical sector.
- ✓ To bridge the gap between academic knowledge and industry requirements.

Program Overview: The program spanned from 14th September 2023 to 25th September 2023, encompassing a series of workshops, seminars, and interactive sessions. Each session was carefully crafted to address specific aspects of employability, including communication skills, problem-solving, teamwork, leadership, and industry insights.

Key Highlights:

Inaugural Session: The program commenced with an inaugural session where Dr. Charushila J. Bhangale, Principal of our institution, emphasized the importance of employability skills in today's competitive job market.

Expert Sessions: Mr. Shrikant, CEO of Cu-Succeed Organization, delivered insightful sessions on industry trends, career opportunities, and the skills required succeeding in the pharmaceutical sector. His practical knowledge and experience provided invaluable guidance to the participants.

Workshops: Several workshops were conducted focusing on resume building, interview preparation, and professional etiquette. These hands-on sessions enabled students to refine their job application skills and present themselves effectively in professional settings.

Mock Interviews: Mock interview sessions were organized to simulate real-world interview scenarios. Feedback from industry professionals helped participants identify areas for improvement and gain confidence in their interview skills.

Group Activities: Team-building activities and group projects were incorporated to foster collaboration, communication, and leadership skills among the participants.

Closing Ceremony: The program concluded with a closing ceremony where participants received certificates of completion. Prof. Mr. V.D. Kunde, Ms. Shital Gosavi, and Ms. Rutuja Pagare were acknowledged for their exemplary coordination and efforts in organizing the program.

Outcomes:

- ✓ Enhanced employability skills such as communication, teamwork, and problem-solving.
- ✓ Improved understanding of industry expectations and career pathways in the pharmaceutical sector.
- ✓ Increased confidence and readiness to face job interviews and professional challenges.
- ✓ Strengthened connections between students, faculty, and industry experts, fostering a collaborative learning environment.

Conclusion: The program not only equipped participants with essential employability skills but also inspired them to pursue excellence in their careers. Such initiatives play a crucial role in preparing students to become competent professionals and contributing members of the pharmaceutical industry.

Description:

The PRES's, College of Pharmacy (For Women), Chincholi, Nashik conducted the successful initiation of the Viksit Bharat@2047 vision. This ground breaking initiative is designed to mold the future of nation, and we are delighted to have witnessed the enthusiastic participation of our students in the inaugural event of Viksit Bharat@2047 Ustav and inaugural address by Hon'ble Prime Minister of India Narendra Modiji.

The students participated with great enthusiasm, demonstrating a profound understanding of the subject matter. Many had already gained insight from the Prime Minister's inaugural speech the previous day, providing them with a background and a sense of purpose for the event. Their receptiveness and eagerness to contribute over the next 25 years were palpable.

The successful launch of the Viksit Bharat@2047 vision event showcased the commitment and enthusiasm of our students. Their insightful ideas, coupled with a strong sense of national pride, promise a bright future for India. As we move forward, the Institute is excited about facilitating more events and activities that will harness the collective power of our students towards the realization of this visionary initiative. Dr. Sachin B. Somwanshi thanked students for taking part in the event and aligning with national aspirations.

risks and rewards associated with the venture. The objective of this workshop was to motivate students towards entrepreneurship as it can create employment for the future generations. Ms. Gayatri Shardul, Entrepreneurs Trainer, addressed the students about the concept of entrepreneurship.

She introduced the concept of entrepreneurship by focusing on myths related to it and the different aspects of entrepreneurship such as entrepreneurs are born not made, entrepreneur fit an ideal profile, all you need is money to be an entrepreneur, all you need is luck to be an entrepreneur and another is that great idea is the only ingredient in a recipe for business. He mentioned that the reason that people do not start their new ventures in a country like India is due to non-awareness amongst the population of India and decides to go for jobs in private or government sector so as to minimize the risk. She also explained in detail about the various attributes of successful entrepreneurs such as drive, communication skills and technical skills.

Mrs. N. S. Kadbhane, co-ordinator, Student Welfare Department of SPPU, gave a vote of thanks to the guest speaker and added his own insights about the workshop. The event was a great success; all the faculties and students learnt practical aspects of entrepreneurship through this workshop.

BRAIN ?

SURPRISING BENEFITS OF LISTENING TO MUSIC

- Decreases blood pressure
- Reduces stress levels
- Boost memory
- Fights depression
- Alleviates Pain

MUSIC AND THE BRAIN
 Playing and listening to music, activate several areas of the brain.

- Motor Cortex - Involved in movement while dancing or playing an instrument.
- Prefrontal Cortex - Controls behavior, depression and decision making.
- Basics attention and amygdala - Involved with emotional reaction to music.
- Motor Cortex - Controls fine motor of the brain.
- Somatosensory Cortex - Controls tactile feedback while playing instruments or dancing.
- Auditory Cortex - Involved in understanding and analyzing music.
- Motor Cortex - Involved in tapping music or holding or your own dance moves.
- Visual Cortex - Involved in seeing music or playing or watching others play.
- Cerebellum - Involved in movement while dancing or playing an instrument, as well as emotional responses.

REASONS WHY MUSIC IS ESSENTIAL

Music improves mood and behavior, it has a real effect on the brain's chemistry. It helps to regulate the levels of dopamine and serotonin.

Personalized music provides a sense of accomplishment and self-expression when it's used to learn a new language or hobby.

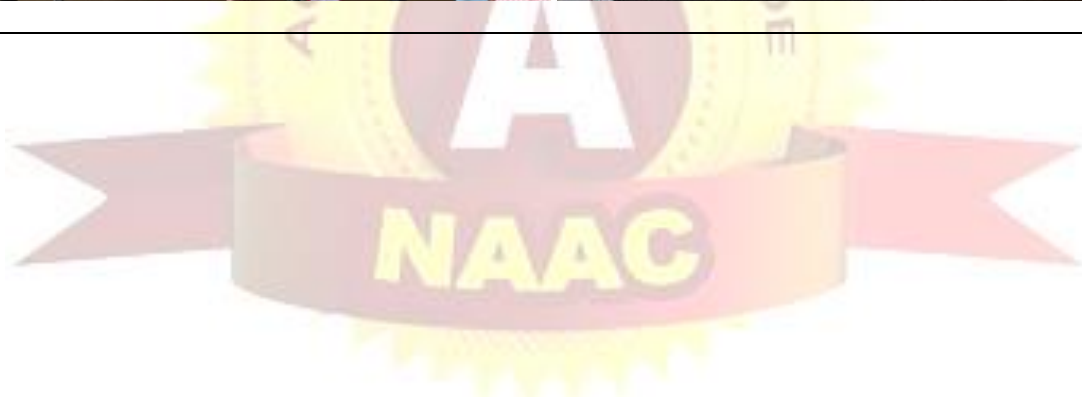

Music is especially powerful for people with dementia or Alzheimer's disease, where it can help to improve memory and reduce anxiety.

Personalized Music Provides a sense of accomplishment and self-expression when it's used to learn a new language or hobby.

By increasing dopamine levels, music can help to improve mood and reduce anxiety.

Music can also be used to help with depression, anxiety and pain.

CONCLUSION ->
 Music is a good tool to motivate, elicit positive emotion, increase mood and dopamine in the brain, however, when playing to yourself and recall the memory, playing live or passive and enhance cognitive skills. Keep the music slow, can't think, think like to listen to music, while thinking, that study despite keeping the music about it, doing with playing music.
