Description:

The National Pollution Control Day or National Pollution Prevention Day is observed on December 2 every year in India. The objective of the day is to raise awareness about the different measures to control pollution and the prevention of industrial disasters. National Pollution Control Day is especially observed in the memory of people who died in the Bhopal gas tragedy of 1984.

Keeping this aim in view, NSS unit, IIC & IQAC cell of PRES's, College of Pharmacy (For Women), Chincholi, Nashik celebrated "National Pollution Control Day" on 2nd December 2023. Students of college and NSS volunteers participated and celebrated day enthusiastically.

NSS unit, IIC & IQAC cell of PRES's, College of Pharmacy (For Women), Chincholi, Nashik, took a sincere effort on the Occasion of National Pollution Control Day and organized National Level Online Quiz to spread awareness about the problem caused by increasing pollution among the students. The Theme of "National Pollution Control Day 2023" is "To breath clean, let's go green". There were 10 multiple choice type questions each carrying 2 marks. E-Certificate was provided on registered email address for those participants who scored more than or equal to 60% score.

Link of Social Awareness Campaign was: <https://forms.gle/yoiAG2FsRpu9qt7E7>

Total 100+ participants were registered for this online quiz. The program was co-ordinated by Mrs. Kaveri T. Vaditake_Nannor, NSS Program Officer & Dr. Sachin B. Somwanshi, Co-ordinator, Institute's Innovation Council.

The NSS volunteers of Pravara Rural Education Society's College of Pharmacy (For Women), in collaboration with Sindhutai Memorial Hospital, Nashik, organized a Health Awareness Programme and Health Checkup Camp at Mohu Village. This initiative aimed to promote health education and provide essential medical services to the rural community. The program included interactive sessions led by healthcare professionals, covering topics such as personal hygiene, nutrition, disease prevention, and the importance of regular health checkups. The health camp provided free medical consultations, basic health screenings, and diagnostic services, including blood pressure monitoring, blood sugar testing, and general physical examinations. Medications and guidance were also provided to those in need. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from the villagers, who benefited from both the medical services and the valuable health knowledge imparted. This collaborative effort not only addressed the immediate healthcare needs of the community but also raised awareness about maintaining a healthy lifestyle. The program served as a hands-on learning experience for the students, instilling a sense of social responsibility and strengthening their communication and organizational skills.

Report on A Skit on Balvivahband

Name of Department/ Committee	National Service Scheme (DSF114), Women Empowerment Cell & CSR Cell
Title of the event	A Skit on Balvivahbandi at Mohu villag
Date	26/01/2024
Name of the coordinator	Mrs. Kaveri M. Nannor
Objective	To raise awareness and educate people about its detrimental effects. To shed light on the issue, evoke empathy, and provoke thought about its impact on children and society
Outcome	The skit can educate the audience about the harmful effects of child marriage on children, families, and society. It can highlight the legal, health, and emotional consequences of forcing children into marriage.
No. of Participant	50 (NSS volunteers)
As part of its commitment to social responsibility, the NSS Department and Women Empowerment Cell, in collaboration with the CSR Cell of Pravara Rural Education Society's College of Pharmacy (For Women), organized a skit on Balvivahbandi (child marriage prevention) at Mohu Village. The skit aimed to raise awareness among villagers and students about the legal, social, and personal implications of child marriage, emphasizing its adverse effects on education, health, and future opportunities. The program, coordinated by Ms. Kaveri T. Vaditake (NSS Coordinator), effectively engaged the audience with a powerful message, encouraging them to actively oppose child marriage in their community. It fostered dialogue on gender equality and the importance of education for girls, leaving a lasting impact on the attendees and reinforcing the institution's dedication to community welfare and social change.

Report on Tree plantation & Harvesting Program

Name of Department/ Committee	National Service Scheme (DSF114)
Title of the event	Tree plantation & Harvesting at Mohu Village
Date	29/01/2024
Name of the coordinator	Mrs. Kaveri M. Nannor
Objective	To promote environmental sustainability and awareness among the local community
Outcome	It strengthened student-community bonds, boosted leadership and teamwork skills, and raised environmental awareness among villagers.
No. of Participant	50
The NSS volunteers of Pravara Rural Education Society's College of Pharmacy (For Women) organized a tree plantation and harvesting drive at Mohu Village as part of their ongoing community outreach initiatives. This activity aimed to promote environmental sustainability and awareness among the local community. Volunteers enthusiastically planted saplings of native tree species in designated areas, ensuring proper spacing and soil preparation for optimal growth. The harvesting efforts focused on collecting fruits and other produce from previously planted trees, demonstrating the long-term benefits of consistent care and environmental stewardship. In addition to the physical tasks, the volunteers conducted awareness sessions with the villagers, emphasizing the importance of afforestation, sustainable harvesting practices, and biodiversity conservation. The event not only enhanced the greenery of Mohu Village but also instilled a sense of responsibility in the students, nurturing leadership skills and a deeper connection with nature. This initiative was highly appreciated by the villagers, who pledged their support for maintaining the planted saplings and promoting similar activities in the future.
