PRES's, College of Pharmacy (for women), Chincholi, Nashik organized Covid-19 Awareness Program on 2nd July 2020 with the objective of exploring ways and means to improve one's immune system which at present is the need of the hour along with measures like frequent washing of hands and practicing social distancing.

Dr. Shaikh, Nashik emphasized that the physical and mental wellness had and will play a major role in a person's robust immune system, which included enough sleep, a staple healthy diet rich of whole plant food and prebiotics, moderate exercise, consumption of enough water and managing stress levels. Dr Joshi also cautioned the participants on the spread of the virus in different climatic conditions, precautionary measures to be taken in post-lockdown period, how to take care against asymptomatic infection carriers and contaminated food. Lastly he distributed homeopathic medicine to all faculty members.

Dr. Charushila J. Bhangale, Principal during the interactive session appealed to all not to fall prey to rumours, and explicitly explained that lowering of the immune system is an invitation to virus attack and therefore, good health of the people is the key to combat it. Dr. Ramdas T. Dolas, co-ordinator summarized the session with a vote of thanks.

Report on Worlds AIDS Day 2020

Name of Department/ Committee	National Service Scheme (DSF114)
Name of event organized	World AIDS Day
Title of the event	AIDS Awareness Program_Online Competitions
Date	01/12/2020
Name of the coordinator	Dr. Sachin B. Somwanshi and Ms. Kaveri T. Vaditake
Objective	To spread the awareness among students
Outcome	Students and people got aware regarding AIDS and showed support for people living with HIV.
No. of Participant (Student+ Staff)	42 + 08

The NSS unit of PRES's, College of Pharmacy (For Women), Chincholi in association with Red Ribbon Club observed World AIDS Day to spread awareness regarding AIDS and show support for people living with HIV by organising competitions for poster making and also slogan writing and video presentations. Due to Covid- 19 pandemic, the programme was conducted through online mode in which the NSS volunteers shared facts and medically accurate information about HIV and AIDS to help stop HIV stigma and myths. Some NSS volunteers created AIDS awareness posters with slogans like 'Let's Stop HIV Together' and 'Open your eyes before AIDS closes them'. They prepared videos explaining their posters and shared them through online WhatsApp groups to highlight ways to reduce HIV stigma and promote prevention. Principal Dr. Charushila Bhangale highlighted the fact that the world is facing new diseases each day and Covid-19 is the latest in this category. She further said, "We all should take constructive steps to eliminate chronic diseases for making our planet safe and spreading awareness about AIDS in communities is must, which our NSS unit volunteers are doing to a great extent." As many as 42 students participated in the competition and made beautiful and message oriented posters on HIV/AIDS.

Dr. Ramdas T. Dolas, Mr. Kiran B. Dhamak and Mrs. Roma Sharma were the jury members. Ankita Shinde of Sem III bagged 1st position while Avantika Handore of Sem VII-2nd position and Kudale Bhumika of Sem V secured 3rd position. All the participants were given E-certificates. Dr. Charushila Bhangale, Principal of the college congratulated the winners and appreciated the efforts of the concerned teachers.

The International Women's Day, which was observed on 8th March, 2021, was celebrated at College of Pharmacy (For Women), Chincholi, Nashik. The chief guest of the event was Hon'ble Vanitha Sanap, Campus Director, Pravara Technical Education Campus, Nashik, to make the event livelier. The programme was first started with the worship of Saraswati. The chief guest was offered a floral welcome. The inaugural note was delivered by Dr. Charushila Bhangale, Principal. She presented her views regarding this special occasion. She accented the importance of this day by saying that the celebration is being done only because no other species possess such plethora of attributes.

The chief guest, Hon'ble Vanitha Sanap, brought out the role of woman in family and society. She said that women's day is to celebrate the achievements of women in various fields and also to express our respect, appreciation & love towards the most powerful gender.

On this occasion, there were various events of celebrations and deliberations. Students, too, shared their views on woman empowerment and ongoing scenarios. A Fancy Dress Competition was carried out which emphasised the role of women in the society. Other events included speech competition, skit competition. At the end, prize distribution for the winners was done. The event was hosted by An Dehraj and Sejal Kharat. The Program was concluded by proposing the vote of thanks by Mrs Sangita Bhandare.
